Thoughts from the East

Brethren!

Happy Fourth of July! I hope you (and family) are enjoying the summer. As Worshipful Master, my schedule has been busy and the season very eventful. Read for yourself.

One Day to Masonry

One Day to Masonry was held at North Star Lodge No. 23, St. Cloud, on June 18th. Eighteen Brothers were raised. The work was top-notch. I was honored to participate; rewarded the part of the second Craftsman. I tried my best. I only had four lines to remember. I believe I spoke them correctly. The lectures given at One Day were also very good; especially one addressed by a 90-year old brother. I never heard such an elegant and soft-spoken lecture. It rolled off the brother's tongue like it was his own and he did not abruptly stammer or pause. How sweet it was. However, the day was long and I was glad to get home.

Busy Masonic Weekend

The next weekend, June 24th through June 26th, was jammed packed with masonic events. It started Friday with the Minnesota Masonic Heritage Center grand opening. Most Worshipful Grand Master Bob Darling led the processional and dedication. After the Masonic dedication and ribbon cutting, we were all invited to tour the facility. If you haven't visited the Heritage Center at the Masonic Home in Bloomington, I suggest you do it soon. It's a site to see. Masonic Charities stopped at no expense to make the center state-of-art.

It includes a museum, library, stage and auditorium, and a fantastic lodge room. Hopefully we can hold a stated meeting in the center sometime in the near future, so you can see for yourself. On Saturday, we held the St. Paul Saints social event. For those who missed it, there was great food, an interesting bus ride to the game and exciting baseball. Even though the group had to leave the game early, the Saints pulled off a win in extra innings. Many thanks to brother Don Moy for planning, organizing, and working the event. It certainly will be the best social outing of the summer. Sunday, the Savage Masonic Center partook in the Dan Patch Parade. Members of MRV #6, Lebanon #346 and OES came together to join in the fun. The fire truck is back! Great work WB Rich Hervieux! His repairs on the truck were timely and he drove the vehicle with pride. Thank you to all the brothers (and sisters) as well as their families, who either walked aside the truck and passed out candy, or rode atop and waved to the crowd. The weather was beautiful; couldn't ask for a better day. What a way to end the weekend!

Widow in Need

Recently, I was given some information about a widow who has fallen on hard times. Needless to say, when the Most Worshipful Grand Master and a Past Grand Master approach you about the situation, you sit down and listen. One of our Masonic widows needs our help. She is taking care of her daughter and three grandchildren in her home on only one income. You can imagine that money is tight. Her relief is already in motion. Thank you WB Steve Scheffert for your help in organizing and scheduling brothers to visit the widow. These brothers will take care of some much needed house repairs. My goal is to raise over $1000 for the widow's aid. I will call for a motion to donate from the lodge funds and also plan to "pass the hat" for personal contributions. If able, please be prepared to give. This certainly is one of our Masonic duties. Thank you all in advance!

The Last Word:

Remember to sign up to work in the food trailer during Kolacky Days (July 21 -24). I would like to challenge the brothers in the north district to fill a work slot (or two). Especially on Thursday, where more brothers are needed to setup the tent and food trailer. Let's work together and make this a successful fundraising event.

To the next time, Fraternally,

Douglas Rhodes, Worshipful Master

Chaplain Corner – Growing up in Small Communities

Greetings Brothers and Friends,

My wife Betty recently shared with me a composition she had created reflecting on her “growing up” years. I liked it so much I asked her permission to allow me to share it with you. Thank you Betty for being the guest-writer for this issue of the Chaplain Corner.

Growing Up

A few days ago I shared a posting about which I felt strongly. Part of the "statement" included returning prayer to schools. One respondent came back with "separation of church and state." This got me to thinking about my own growing up years.

I grew up on the prairie of the Great Plains in small communities in Kansas, Nebraska and Montana! It was a fabulous place to be a kid. My early classroom memories include Thanksgiving and honoring and thanking the Native Americans for the help they gave the Pilgrims. We ALWAYS had a Turkey dinner with all the trimmings for hot lunch. School would release early the Wednesday before so those who were traveling could get away earlier.

Christmas came next with all the music and pageantry that goes with it. Parents, friends and members of the community gathered in the gymnasium and celebrated in song and sharing good will to all. We sang the traditional Christmas carols, Frosty the Snowman and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer. It was fun. We would adjourn for our CHRISTMAS BREAK.

Easter found schools being dismissed on Maundy Thursday and resuming the TUESDAY after. This was our Easter break. On Good Friday, all the businesses would close about 2:30 pm in the afternoon so as to observe a Good Friday service at the church of your choice. Stores would reopen around 4 pm and finish out their work day.

We had a "church night" every week that was understood that NO school events were to encroach upon it. It was also understood that NO sports events could take place until after 12 noon so as to observe Sunday. No one died from having to wait to have their ballgames.

The Sunday before high school graduation found graduates, their families, friends and members of the community gathered at the gymnasium for a Baccalaureate celebration. This was led by various members of the clergy of the community. We celebrated the graduates' achievements and acknowledged God's guidance and asked for continued blessings. If you didn't want to attend, you didn't attend. No one made a big thing about it.

Graduation was always on Wednesday night a week and a half before school dismissed for the summer. We had a member of the clergy offer an opening prayer and a closing prayer. This was a tradition until someone somewhere began screaming about the "separation of church and state" and you can't do that! To this day I honestly do not understand what the harm was.

I feel sorry for my children and the children of today's world for not having the sense of community that I took for granted. The east side of the community of Baker, Montana, where I spent about 20 years, was hit last weekend [June 11, 2016] with an F-3 tornado. Homes were totally destroyed, many were severely damaged and people were injured. The Rescue Squad and community rallied to see that EVERYONE WAS ACCOUNTED FOR before they went home to their beds. The communities in the surrounding area have come to their aid and pitched in to help with the massive clean-up project. (When we were hit with straight-line winds that took down many of the trees in our area, we saw a little of this kind of caring. It lasted ONE DAY.)

I stand by my statement that we need to return prayer to our schools. I actually believe it is still there hiding in the thoughts of the child who is sitting down to take an important test. I always did.

Think what you want. This is what I believe.

Renaissance Chapter #313 met on May 19, 2016. Ideas were discussed about fund raising for the Chapter. Past and Present Secretaries were honored. They are so important to our Chapter. They were given a gift and much appreciation for what they do. We met again on June 16th. We voted and approved two new members that will be joining us. We are always so glad to have new members. An initiation ceremony was talked about. A date will be set later on. As always, refreshments were served after the meeting. You could choose a banana split or ice cream Sundae.

Our LARGEST FUNDRAISER

I know, you get the same message EVERY YEAR! The pork burger stand is our LARGEST fundraiser, but you are busy. You have vacation or kids events or a family dinner, or you have to mow the lawn EVERY weekend. Well, here is what you are missing:

1. Camaraderie – Get to know your Brothers better. If you are a new member this is a way to get better acquainted with our members. Also learn a bit of history. My guess is that the “core” group of Brothers that run the stand have over 400 years of history as Masons. (I am not making this up)
2. Experience –
 - a. This is the 82nd annual Kolacky Days (July 22-24) in Montgomery. A sampling of events includes an authentic Czech dinner, a prune spitting competition, tractor pull, 5k run, dance, parade. Bring the family. Let them walk around, pull a shift, then join them for some fun.
 - b. The LeSueur County Fair (August 18-21) is a nostalgic event for those of you who grew up outside of the Big City. Come and see the 4H kids show their livestock. See the arts and crafts displays. Enjoy a band. Ride some rides. Eat some great fair food.
3. Make a Difference – Every year we support the many Masonic Charities and other important causes that are a main reason for our existence. One of the main reasons I joined the Masons was because I believe.

I hope you will join me in supporting YOUR Lodge. More information will be sent out prior to the events. We will need help with set up, working the events, and tear down/clean up. Shifts are typically 3 hours, although set up and tear down can be either shorter or longer depending on how many Brothers attend. All training will be provided and I will provide a MONEY BACK GUARANTEE if you are not TOTALLY SATISFIED with your volunteer experience.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me any time at 612.803.6774.

THANK YOU,

Brother Jeremy Sacker

A Gentleman Stands in Your Midst

(By RW Stenrick B Adams of the Grand Lodge of New York)

Giving honor to God, who is the master of my life, to the Grandmaster, and all present on this glorious day. Make others to know that, always, that gentleman stands before them. "Words we are charged by."

1 Peter declares: You should clothe yourself with a beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit that is pleasing in his sight.

The Quran declares: A gentle man is pious True piety does not consist of turning your face to the East or West, but truly pious is he who believes in God.

In spiritual terminology, piety is a virtue that may include religious devotion, spirituality, or a combination of both. "Godliness"

Mahatma Gandhi was asked, by a reporter, "what is your message?" he replied "My life. My life is my message."-Profound.

Today I ask- What is your message? Who are you? Who am I? What does our life speak to- in our homes, on the job, in lodge, or in the world at large? What is our message? How are we responding to the challenge of being a gentleman?

In modern parlance, the term "gentleman" refers to any man of good or courteous conduct. It may also refer to all men collectively (as an indication of gender- separate facilities), or as a sign of the speaker's own courtesy when addressing others. We also have a distortion for the term today, which we don't care to bring in the picture.

However, in its, original meaning, the term denoted a man of the lowest rank of the English gentry- standing below and esquire and above a yeoman.

Esquire is a title of respect accorded to men, particularly a barrister or lawyer.

Yeoman, in early usage, is an attendant in noble households. Hence, you may see, for example, a name "John Brown Esq." or "Yeoman John Brown of chambers".

Interesting enough, the title gentleman was never affixed to a man's name as a suffix or prefix. It was never based on his bloodline, station in life of education, vocational skill, or financial circumstances, but speaks to his behavior in his circumstances, and how he "makes others fee;"- how fits in, blends, and contributes to the betterment of others. In this mosaic or tapestry of delivery we call life. No one can bequeath to you, or charter you a gentleman. No King or President can bestow upon you, the title.

Allow me to reflect on a quote by James II. "I can make many noblemen, but God Almighty alone, can make gentlemen".

And I must tell you, but I am sure you know, how much more difficult it has become, in this world we live in today- where selfish gains seem to be the order of the day. On the trains, on the planes, on the job, schools, business men...

What about a gentleman's handshake? What about a gentleman's word? What about just being a gentleman? A man who is courteous, kind, honest, humble, honorable, thoughtful, cares for others, celebrates other's victories, gives of himself for others, and is always concerned about how he makes others feel.

Well, I am so proud to be a part of an organization that charges us to be gentlemen. Peter, reminds us that "the beauty of a gentle and quiet comes from within."

...and Sarah tells us that gentlemen are pious.

We are challenged to strengthen the path of our acceptance, and let our life reflect the love of God, that the world may be a better and happier place because of "you".

Let even your own solitude, keep company with the gentleman within you. So when you look in the mirror, you can say-you will KNOW- that a gentleman stands in your midst.

Let the texture of your character make everyone know that a gentleman stands before them.

Let your very life speak in such a way, that all may know the high ordeals for which we stand... because a gentleman stands in the midst. Let your LIFE be your message

For, much may be accomplished by the force of good example.

So let your light shine before men, so that they may see your good works and glorify the father, who sits on that house, not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Behold! Gentleman stand in my midst!
